

Lash of Party Whip Deplored By Roosevelt

Governor Says Secret Strangulation Is Responsible For Defeat of Labor Bills in Legislature Although Mentioned or By Inference Designated as Part of Party Platform.

New York, March 1 (AP).—Governor Roosevelt today deplored what he described as "the lash of the party whip" and "secret strangulation" in defeat of labor bills by the Legislature. His opinion of legislative procedure was expressed in an address before the Consumers' League here.

The governor said the bills had been specifically mentioned or by inference designated as part of the political platforms of both parties, but that each year "after the election is over, some hidden power behind the legislative majority has succeeded in preventing, in the great majority of instances," not only their passage, but "open and honest discussion of their merits."

He called upon his audience and those listening in on a radio hookup to impress representatives that the bills should be reported out of committee, debated on the floor and acted upon on their merits alone.

The governor complimented the league upon its "untiring and unflinching efforts to secure for labor the legislation needed to advance the welfare of the toilers and protect them from injustice."

Slay in Open Battle

"There are three ways of defeating proposed legislation," the governor said. "One is the method followed in the early days of our republic, and which most truly conforms to the correct practice of a democracy, which is consideration of each proposal in open session and serious debate, in an open-minded and non-partisan spirit, and a sincere desire to weigh its merits. If it is found inadvisable or unwise, it is then slain, after a fair and open battle. And the reasons for such actions are open for all the voters to examine and judge for themselves. This is undoubtedly the way all bills of real importance which have been shown any considerable approval and support by the voters of the state should be treated."

The Lash of Party Whip

"The second method is by the lash of the party whip; the demand on the legislators by their party leaders that they divide according to their political affiliations and leave to the master minds of their organizations the responsibility as to whether such action is justified or not. In this procedure the bill, when brought up for discussion, is foredoomed to failure and all debates thereon are of a purely perfunctory nature, nor can any argument or reasoning change the final vote. There is no possible justification for the adoption of this course, on bills which are avowedly non-partisan in character. Certainly it would be manifestly a breach of good faith to so treat legislation which both parties have endorsed in their political creeds."

Secret Strangulation

"Then, there is the third method of killing legislation by secret strangulation, known more politely as 'killing a bill in committee.' It is a measure the principle of which no party would dare openly oppose. It is given a mock hearing or no hearing at all. The committee which holds the power of life or death over the measure solemnly meets and behind closed doors, for reasons best known to themselves, proceeds by a vote of its majority, which is in all cases of the same party as the majority in the Legislature, to refuse to report the measure for open discussion and debate."

"It is wise to refer bills to committees; it is wise that committees should seriously consider them and should have the power to refuse to report them for legislative action; otherwise hundreds and thousands of bills introduced each year, which never should have been introduced at all, would clog the legislative calendar so that our sessions would never end; which Heaven forbid!"

Treatment of Labor Legislation

"But there can be no possible defense for a refusal to report non-partisan legislation, supported in principle by both parties, urged by reputable and wise bodies, defended by people of the highest reputation and character in public hearings, and yet this is exactly the way in which this labor legislation has been treated, year after year, by the majority party in control of all legislation at Albany."

"In spite of the fair promises before election day, in spite of the declarations of sympathy by individual candidates for election and also in spite of the real convictions of our legislators, these bills have been persistently refused a place on the legislative calendar or a chance to obtain a public roll call."

"I do not know what powerful hidden hands in the past have shot the bolts of the committee doors and refused to let these bills appear, nor is it vital that we should know for the moment who they are. The important thing is that exactly this same proceeding of past years is being undertaken at this session. Bills meeting practically all of the points which I mentioned in my message have been introduced, some of them by Democrats, some by Republicans, but none of importance have been reported."

"Unless your organization and all similar organizations and unless the voters of this state, regardless of party, make clear to their representatives in the Legislature their desire to have these measures seriously considered, they will not be reported."

Jones Liquor Bill Passes in House

Measure Calling For Five-Year Jail Term and $10,000 Fine Needs Only The President's Signature To Become Law.

Washington, March 1 (AP).—Approved by both houses, the Jones bill today needed only the president's signature to become law. The measure was passed by the House yesterday by the one-sided vote of 283 to 90.

The bill provides for a maximum penalty for a first violation of the prohibition laws five years in prison, or a fine of $10,000, or both. Discretionary power is given federal judges to discriminate between minor and major offenders.

Introduced by Senator Jones, Republican, of Washington, the measure probably was the only one to be considered during the session in which the issue between the wet and dry was well defined. A few drys were against it because they thought the law too stringent, but only a few, as the vote showed.

While it was in the Senate the bill precipitated a debate between Reed of Missouri and Borah of Idaho, but all the Missourian's eloquence did not keep it from passing the Senate by almost a large margin, comparatively speaking, as it did in the House.

During the debate in the House, F. Scott McBride, general superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, sat in one section of the gallery, while in another section were representatives of the association against the prohibition amendment. Dr. McBride's presence was noted by Representative O'Connor, Democrat, New York, in an attack upon the bill. O'Connor intimated that the advocates of the Jones measure were not supporting the constitution but were passing the bill because they were passing the liquor, whose leader and whose dictator sits there in the corner, watching your every move and who is sending messages down here somewhere."

"He sits up there, Dr. McBride, the super president of the United States," O'Connor continued. "Many of you know he is there. That is the constitution and that is the amendment you are supporting, and not the Eighteenth amendment."

Missionaries to Stay in Shantung

Chefoo, China, March 1 (AP).—American missionaries in northern Shantung chose today to remain at their posts despite hostility between Chinese factions which, in the opinion of consular authorities, threatened their safety.

Recommendations that they leave and go aboard the U. S. S. Trenton brought the response that they believed it their duty to remain. They said they would be able in remaining to relieve some of the sufferings of the Chinese victims of the new civil war.

Meanwhile a definite bid for treachery on the part of the nationalist commander here, General Liu Chen-Nien, was being made by the former Shantung war lord, Chang Tsung-Chang. Chang is known to have made attractive offers to Liu. The general thus far has spurned them, but failure to receive reinforcements from Nanking may change the situation.

From over the northern part of the province reports of villages burned and ravaged by both Chang's and Liu's troops continue to reach here. Both sides are seeking support among various independent groups which also are pillaging and destroying. These latter number thousands.

Snell and Parker Pass on Patronage

Washington, March 1 (AP).—The New York Republican delegation in the House today adopted a resolution favoring the placing of all patronage matters in the Empire State in the hands of Representatives Snell and Parker, in view of the fact that there are no Republican Senators from that state.

The resolution adopted read: "It was regularly moved, seconded and unanimously carried that Representative Bertrand H. Snell and Representative James E. Parker be and are duly authorized to perform the duties and missions ordinarily and customarily performed by United States Senators in all federal matters in which the Republican party of the state is or may be interested."

March Came in Like a Lamb

Springlike weather was ushered in with the arrival of the month of March today, and the residents naturally wonder if March will go out like a lion. February was ushered out amid a fall of snow that melted almost as fast as it fell, leaving in its wake slushy walks and streets. The street department is still busy removing snow from the streets, and the snowfall during February has afforded considerable work to many otherwise idle men.

Hoover Relaxes For Inauguration

Not Completely Inactive But Is Able to Move More Leisurely in Conferences and With Work Still at Hand.

Washington, March 1 (AP).—All of his pressing problems solved, President-elect Hoover today calmly awaited the arrival of the day, now but three removed, when he will take over the administration of government in the midst of pageantry such as Washington has not known in many years.

While he was not completely inactive today, he was able to relax and to move more leisurely in conferences and with the work still at hand. He planned to go over carefully the proof sheets of his inaugural address so that the printers may have the finished copies ready tomorrow morning for their distribution in advance to the press of the country. Conferences also were in prospect, although there were no definite appointments. It was expected that several Senators and members of the House would call during the day, as a number had expressed their desire to do so.

Friends of the President-elect said he had reached no decisions regarding selections of successors to assistant secretaries in the various departments who soon are to leave the government service to re-enter business fields. It was indicated that he would make no appointments until he had conferred with the men he had selected to administer the affairs of the several departments.

It also was stated that he would follow the same rule with respect to diplomatic appointments and since Henry L. Stimson, who is to be secretary of state, will not reach Washington until April 1, it was assumed that changes in the diplomatic corps would be made after that time.

Speculation Over "Surprises"

With eight cabinet selections regarded as fixtures, speculation still went merrily on today on the promised "surprise" appointments to the agriculture and commerce posts. Admittedly the guessers were making little headway as they found themselves rather seriously handicapped by the statement that the men chosen have not even been mentioned in connection with the posts in any of the conjecture to date.

DOCTORS INSIST ON LIQUID DIET FOR FOCH

Paris, March 1 (AP).—Slight improvement in the condition of Marshal Foch was noted by his physicians in a bulletin this morning. The bulletin said: "The Marshal's temperature is 37.5 and his pulse 84. There is a diminution in the pulmonary symptoms."

The Marshal today subsisted on milk and water. Fish, rice puddings, and the other light dishes on which he has insisted were forbidden by his doctors, who ordered a liquid diet.

BERLIN SPECIALIST CALLED FOR TROTSKY

Constantinople, March 1 (AP).—A report today said that Leon Trotsky was so ill that Soviet doctors were unable to treat him and a specialist from Berlin, named Klemperer, had been called here to attend him.

His trouble was described as a combined liver and lung trouble. The Turkish press today published the first statement definitely stating that Trotsky was in Turkey. It was added that his permit to remain in this country expires May 1.

DIPLOMATS' WEDDING GIFTS FOR JOHN COOLIDGE

Washington, March 1 (AP).—A silver bowl with four tall silver candlesticks has been taken to the White House by Lady Isabella Howard, wife of the British ambassador to Washington, as a wedding gift to John Coolidge from the diplomatic representatives accredited to this country.

May Establish Fire Districts

Question of Establishing Fire Districts at Stone Ridge and High Falls Discussed at Meeting Thursday in Stone Ridge.

The question of establishing fire districts at Stone Ridge and High Falls was discussed Thursday evening at a joint meeting held at Stone Ridge, but no definite action was taken. For some time past there has been discussion in those villages the feasibility of establishing fire districts, and the meeting had been called so that the taxpayers could form an opinion in the matter.

Among those who addressed the meeting were Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy of the Kingston fire department; Judge Henry E. McKenzie of Port Ewen, a former president of the Hudson Valley Volunteer Firemen's Association, and County Attorney Robert G. Groves.

Fire Chief Murphy called attention to the need of modern fire fighting equipment not only in cities but in the country districts. Judge McKenzie also spoke along the same lines and told how the Port Ewen fire department had recently purchased a modern piece of fire fighting apparatus for use in that village. County Attorney Groves explained the legal side of the question and told what steps had to be taken to establish the proposed fire districts.

Others who spoke at the meeting were representatives of the La Farge and Sanford concerns who manufacture fire fighting apparatus. The Port Ewen department recently purchased a Sanford truck while the Kingston department has several pieces of the La Farge equipment.

The proposed Stone Ridge district would include the villages of Stone Ridge, Cottageville, Marietown and Krippelbush which have an assessed valuation of approximately $600,000. It would require a vote of 51 per cent of the assessed valuation to secure favorable action.

A petition will shortly be circulated in an effort to obtain the necessary number of signatures, and when they are obtained the petition will be filed with the board of supervisors.

Discipline for 36 More Lawyers

New York, March 1 (AP).—Humphrey J. Lynch, former Supreme Court Justice in Westchester county, was one of the lawyers recommended for discipline as a result of the "ambulance chasing" inquiry conducted before Justice Wasservogel when the second list of attorneys was made public today.

There were thirty-six names in the list, which was made public by Irving Ben Cooper, chief assistant prosecutor in the investigation. Five of the attorneys threw themselves on the mercy of the court, admitting the solicitation of cases with which they are charged. This is known as ambulance chasing "in that a certain class of lawyers employ runners to follow up all ambulance calls and solicit business from injured persons as soon as they reach a hospital."

Today's list almost completes the number of attorneys to be brought before the court as a result of the "ambulance chasing" inquiry. Several weeks ago 27 were named. In today's list there were 36, and two weeks from today six more will be named, bringing the total to 69. At the conclusion of Justice Wasservogel's inquiry, 74 lawyers were recommended for discipline but four have resigned from the bar and one has not yet been served.

Miners Escape Wail of Water

Uniontown, Pa., March 1 (AP).—Between 20 and 30 miners escaped with their lives and about 500 to 600 others were thrown out of work today as a wall of water from an abandoned mine rushed through the Edenborn mine, six miles southwest of here and threatened to flood three adjoining operations.

D. Ball, night boss at the Edenborn shaft, heard the roar of the water when it broke through the Plummer mine, which has not been operating, and sounded an alarm. The men who escaped were forced to wade through water waist deep. Fearing the water would seep into the connecting gates, Ralph and Leckrone mines, officials of the H. C. Frick Coal and Coke Company, owners of the mines, closed them down, throwing between 500 and 600 men out of work indefinitely.

The flood caused considerable damage to the Edenborn mine, officials declared.

Medals for Capt. Fried and Crew

Washington, March 1 (AP).—Life-saving medals of honor will be presented to Captain George Fried, Chief Officer Harry Manning and members of the boat crew of the steamship America, which rescued the crew of the sinking Italian steamer Florida. The presentation will be made on board the America in New York harbor at 2 o'clock tomorrow. It was announced by Admiral Billard, commandant of the coast guard.

May Learn to Run Honeymoon Plane

Friends See Possibility That Col. Lindbergh Is Teaching His Fiancee to Fly—He May Remain in Mexico Ten Days.

Mexico City, March 1 (AP).—This capital was inclined today to the belief that Miss Anne Morrow might be an aviatrix before she became Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh and might be able to take her turn at running a honeymoon plane.

There is nothing new to indicate when her marriage with the transatlantic flight hero will take place, but friends see in events of the past two days the possibility that Colonel Lindbergh is teaching her to fly. Miss Morrow's enthusiasm for the air and the quickness with which she submitted to "army discipline" yesterday after her crash of Wednesday lent foundation to indications that she wishes, and soon may be able, to handle a plane herself.

Flying to the exclusion of almost everything else has been Colonel Lindbergh's life. It is regarded as not improbable that Miss Morrow wishes that intimate knowledge of his problems and his work which only ability to fly will give her.

Some significance is given a portion of her poem "Height," winner of a Smith College alumnae prize: "I pushed my head against the blue. Still, like a singing lark, I find Rapture to leave the grass behind. And sometimes, standing in a crowd, My lips are cool against a cloud."

Restore Fliers' Confidence

Yesterday's three flights so soon after the crash of Wednesday were in line with the procedure regularly followed in the army for young pilots after their first smash-ups, that is, to get them into the air again as soon as possible and thus restore their confidence in themselves and their machines.

This, it is pointed out, may have been exactly what Colonel Lindbergh had in mind for Anne. It is reasoned, also, that Wednesday's picnic flight with its nearly disastrous ending might have been made with the idea of acquainting her with some of the rudiments of aviation.

It is assumed that another purpose of yesterday's flights was the advancement of aviation, dear to the colonel's heart, by demonstrating that Wednesday's "mishap" was a forgettable precedent. Miss Morrow's parents are known to share with her an ardent enthusiasm for aviation and its future.

No Secret Wedding

Cuernavaca with its lazy beauty will draw the aviator and the Morrow again this week-end. Colonel Lindbergh and Anne will return to Mexico City on Tuesday. Further definite assurance has been given in authoritative sources that there will be no secret wedding, as some had suggested might take place, on this second trip to the Morrow country home.

There has been no intimation of the colonel's plans after his return from Cuernavaca. Although he has demonstrated his ability to fly with one arm it is not believed he will attempt anything so arduous as a flight back to the United States until his shoulder, now wrapped in bandages and with his arm in a sling, is much improved. This, it is said, probably would be a matter of ten days.

KEHOE HEADS DRY AGENTS IN WESTERN NEW YORK

Buffalo, March 1 (AP).—James J. Kehoe, of this city, today was appointed as dry agent in charge of operations in Buffalo and surrounding counties of western New York. He succeeds Rudolph E. Langhans, who will become a special investigator under Administrator Andrew McCampbell.

Kehoe's promotion is the first step in the reorganization of McCampbell's forces under civil service rules. Fifty-nine agents, investigators and inspectors are to be selected from an eligibility list of 80 men submitted to the western New York dry chief.

KILLED WHEN HIS AUTO GOES OVER EMBANKMENT.

Buffalo, March 1 (AP).—Norman Thirkield, 34, district manager of Bonbright & Company, an investment securities firm, was killed instantly early today when his automobile left the road near Woodlawn, a suburb.

Evidently traveling the curb, struck a telephone pole, rode the nearby railroad tracks for about 50 feet and catapulted over the six foot embankment.

COMPROMISE IN PROSPECT ON DRY APPROPRIATION

Washington, March 1 (AP).—A compromise between the Senate and House on an increase in prohibition funds was in prospect today as Senate conferees in the dispute offered to accept a $2,446,000 increase in place of the $24,960,000 previously voted.

The House has proposed an increase in dry funds of $2,724,000.

State Public Service Commission Sets March 7 as Date for Holding the Rehearing Before Full Commission at Albany—City and County Authorities Notified of Hearing.

Last Meeting of Coolidge Cabinet

Washington, March 1 (AP).—President Coolidge today turned his attention to the last meeting of his group of official advisers, the members of his cabinet. Twice each week throughout his administration it has been his habit to discuss the affairs of the nation with the ten men who head the government departments. Today's session formed their last gathering for the consideration of government business.

The cabinet room itself told a story of an administration about to close. At the end of the chamber stood five new chairs, exact reproductions of the chairs that surround the broad cabinet table, except that the latter bore engraved brass plates identifying the occupant by the name of his department and giving the date that he took office.

The new chairs are to be used by the members of President-elect Hoover's cabinet and are gifts of the present cabinet officers to their successors. Following an old custom, the incumbents will take with them from Washington the chairs which they have occupied at the cabinet table.

This holds true even for the president himself. Mr. Coolidge has ordered a chair from a Washington cabinet maker for Mr. Hoover's use and his own is to be taken to Northampton.

John M. Woolsey Named U.S. Judge

President Coolidge yesterday nominated John M. Woolsey to be United States district judge for the Southern district of New York. The post is one of three additional judgeships in that district provided for by recent legislation. Ulster county is included in this district.

Mr. Woolsey has had wide experience in admiralty law and is chairman of the arbitration committee of the Maritime Law Association. He was born January 3, 1877, in Aiken, S. C. In 1898 he was graduated from Yale and later from Columbia Law School. He was an honor man in his class and a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He became a partner in the law firm of Kirlin, Woolsey & Hixcox of New York in 1915. He was elected a member of the admission committee of the Bar Association in 1915 and in 1917 became its chairman. Besides being a member of the Bar Association of New York city he is a member of the New York State Bar Association, the American Bar Association and the Maritime Law Association. During the war he was counsel to the French High Commission. He has argued several cases before the United States Supreme Court and has specialized in admiralty law.

Wilbur Named Circuit Judge

Washington, March 1 (AP).—Curtis D. Wilbur, secretary of the navy, was nominated by President Coolidge today to be United States circuit judge for the ninth circuit.

By the nomination President Coolidge settled the future status of one of the first members of his cabinet whose plans have become definitely known. The retirement of the secretary also will make it possible for Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, to become secretary of the interior in the Hoover cabinet without there being two brothers in the cabinet.

Mr. Wilbur, before assuming the office of secretary of the navy, was a justice of the Supreme court of California. His judicial experience covered a period of twenty-five years, and the circuit over which he will preside includes his home state of California.

Tiny Flame Gives Magnet Power To Support A Man

The hook from which this man hangs is held solely by the magnetic power generated by heat of a flame no bigger than a thumb.
 By Howard W. Blakelee (Associated Press Science Editor)
 New York, March 1 (AP).—The story of an inventor's thrill at the sight of a dream coming true before his eyes was told with demonstrations at the science dinner here last night of the American Institute and the Museum of the Peaceful Arts.
 At the dinner a man's weight was suspended by the magnetism of a flame. The subject was hung from a hook in an iron plate little bigger than a butter dish, and was held fast by a tiny flame, a chunk of iron above it about the size of a teacup. This lump of iron was transformed into a powerful electro-magnet by the heat of the small flame acting on a single turn of copper rod.
 The inventor, Dr. Paul E. Klopsteg of the development laboratory Central Scientific Company, Chicago, some time ago set out to verify a belief that he could produce a powerful force in this type of heat magnet, which had been a laboratory toy for many years, but never before had been capable of holding more than a few pounds.
 Klopsteg worked on the idea that shape and position of the magnetic and electrical circuits held the secret. When he hit upon the successful design, he did not at first realize that he had found the answer. He began hanging weights upon the small armature.
 When at 48 pounds they showed no sign of pulling the magnet apart, he took them off and applied his own strength. His pull lifted his own weight, 190 pounds, clear of the floor, and he knew then he had solved the riddle. He attached a standard machine, built to test the breaking point of electro-magnets, and watched its indicator creep up past 400 pounds before the armature parted from the magnet.

 No minister has been engaged to succeed the Rev. Charles B. Ross, resigned, as pastor of the Dutch Reformed Church. Two young men who preached as candidates, each made a favorable impression upon the congregation, but they were unable to agree upon either of the applicants as a permanent pastor. Meanwhile, the pulpit is being filled by seminary students.
 Charlie Price, head carpenter on the Pitsford mansion, returned Monday from a short visit to his home in Philadelphia.
 Wild ducks in large numbers are now making the waters adjacent to the dividing weir their temporary habitat. The water in the reservoir is rather low at present, so the sportive quackers have no difficulty in finding a place to dry their webs if they feel like it.
 Harry Feeny is building a refreshment stand along the north boulevard on the west boundary of his farm, formerly the "Zeke" Robbins place. Just how many miniature thirst-quenching emporiums this will make between Kingston and Phoenixia is not known, though their number is considerable. Friends wish Harry and his folks success in the new venture.
 Harry Braithwaite, the genial florist and notary public, narrowly missed colliding with three buck deer which bounded in front of his big Buick roadster Tuesday morning near Wanderers' Rest. It's getting so that deer are about as big a nuisance on the highway as piney woods cattle are in Florida.
 Mrs. Charles Tyler, who together with her family occupy the Van Steenburgh cottage, is ill with throat trouble.
 A great crowd attended the Ruckert auction on the old Henry Coons place last Monday. Folks came from far and near, attracted by the huge pile of farm and household goods offered for sale. Clarence Phillips had plowed the snow out of the road, so the stream of cars found the going up the mountain pretty good. All the stuff was not disposed of, so a continuation of the sale was announced for the next day. As usual at auctions these days, many "bargains" were picked up. For instance, Harry Braithwaite bid in a horse, heavy wagon, harness and three tons of hay for one hundred dollars.
 Henry Fischbach, road salesman for Winchell's, had a close call with his Chevrolet truck one day last week. While coming south near John McKelvey's, a Ford going toward Phoenixia crowded Henry into the ditch, but by a bit of expert maneuvering he managed to get by with no more serious damage than a broken windshield, which was promptly settled for.
 The corner looks a bit more natural since Newton Smith's return from Millbrook. "Newt" stayed away so long that people here began to think he had decided to settle down in Dutchess county.
 Services at the Olive and Harley O.S. Baptist church have been well attended of late, considering the fact that the membership is rather scattered. During the warmer seasons these good folk bring a basket lunch with them and refresh themselves between meetings in a comfortable parlour fitted up in the shade adjoining the church. Some of the town's oldest families are identified with the Old School Baptist de-

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

(By The Associated Press)

New York—George F. Baker, dean of American bankers, has made $10,000,000 in two days—on paper. The amount represents the market appreciation of his holding in the First National Bank, of which he is chairman.

Paris—There is great interest in Monday's ceremony at Washington in which the leading figure will be Monsieur Dorian, as his name is pronounced by those who called the commander of the A. E. F. P. P. P. The pronunciation is particularly popular with radio announcers.

New York—A center of culture has blossomed out of a desert. Santa Fe and Taos, N. M., have attracted at various times such authors as Willa Cather and Sinclair Lewis and more poets and painters than have elsewhere. Their faces in any common direction, writes Mary Austin in the Bookman. "There is an entertaining quality in the daily life not easily achieved elsewhere in the United States."

Paris—For longevity be intellectual. The average "immortal" member of the French academy, dies at 71.

New York—The last published work from the pen of Harvey O'Higgins, in the March American Mercury, says: "The American prefers to die in harness rather than rest in his old age, as the European does." Mr. O'Higgins, taken with pneumonia, died yesterday. He was in his 53rd year.

London—Extra! Attempt to assassinate G. B. S. That's what Mr. Shaw termed reports of his illness, which resulted in telephone calls to him in the midst of a frozen night.

New York—Sessue Hayakawa, in the words of Magistrate Giorgio of Flushing, is a better movie actor than motor car driver. The magistrate fined him $5 for running past a light. "Is that all?" asked Sessue in genuine surprise.

Paris—There's lots of gold that Dempsey, Sharkey and Stripling failed to garner. Georges Claude, noted chemist, calculates that $800,000,000 worth rolls hourly off the coast of Florida. It is in the Gulf Stream.

Quetzaro, Mexico—At political conventions in a neighboring republic bands blare. Delegates assembling here for the convention of the national revolutionary party have been serenaded with love melodies on guitars. Many of the delegates carry pistols openly.

Paris—Saint Berthold has been proposed as the patron saint of radio. As the story goes, a "bert" in Italy in the twelfth century was prevented by his master from going 50 miles to hear Berthold preach. He was lamenting his lot when suddenly Berthold's voice came to him out of the air and he heard the whole sermon.

Travnik, Bosnia—Clasped in each others arms the bodies of a boy and his little sister have been found in snowdrifts 21 feet deep with those of eighty goats they tried to drive to safety from a storm.

Woman Police Judge

Sits for Tenth Year
Boulder, Colo.—A woman's wisdom and sense of fairness balances the scales of justice in Boulder's police court.

After a decade on the bench, Judge Linda M. Lee counts among her friends the persons who have stood before her charged with violation of city ordinances.

She always shows mercy when she is convinced of an offender's sincere wish to be guided by a mistake. A barber who entered a plea of guilty after his arrest for violating a traffic ordinance was let off without a fine when he promised to drive his motor car more carefully in the future. In appreciation of judicial clemency, he offered to bob the judge's hair, and she accepted the offer.

Girl Jaywalker Slaps

N. Y. Policeman's Face
New York—Crowds in Times square saw a policeman get his face slapped when he attempted to prevent a young woman from jaywalking in violation of Police Commissioner Whelan's the strict district traffic rules.

Patrolman John Brennan ran after the woman when she started across Broadway at Forty-sixth street. When she refused to go back he grasped her arm and she gave him a resounding slap on the face.

At a police station she said she was Margaret Frey, twenty-nine years old, a companion to a Mrs. Cook of 240 Riverside drive. Bail was arranged.

DECLINE OF LETTER WRITING.

Lament over the decline of the personal letter is no longer based on mere sentiment or confined to the literary scribe in search of material. At a recent convention of the American Paper and Pulp Association a speaker called attention to the great reduction in the consumption of personal writing paper last year and said it is proof that the art of letter writing is becoming obsolete. Though admitting that the consumption of commercial stationery has greatly increased, he seemed not altogether sure that the gain in this particular was sufficient to offset the loss in the other, and he bewailed the decline of old-time letter writing. There is still vast production of letters, but they are mostly commercial and almost all of them are typewritten, laborious long-hand being virtually a thing of the past.

And even commercial letters are fewer than they might be in this age of modern inventions. Why should the prosperous labor with a pen or pound the typewriter, or even dictate, when they can sit in a comfortable chair, lift a marvelous instrument to mouth and ear and talk with a friend or business prospect even though he be a thousand miles away? The telegraph and telephone have vastly reduced the number of even business letters. But if the paper manufacturers face reduced business in this direction, the immense circulation of newspapers gives them increased business in another. In any case new modern inventions inevitably call for readjustments of trade. The chief loss from the decline of letter writing is the reduction of literary and historical material.

ANTARCTICA'S ANSWER.

One can understand Commander Byrd's joy in realizing an explorer's dream and looking down upon a hitherto unknown or unmapped section of the south polar wastes, but what will be the practical results? He can give that section a name and claim it for his country, but that would seem to be about all. Explorers from other nations have been in that mysterious realm before him, the English, the Norwegian and the rest, and, after advancing some stages beyond that white inhospitable shore, have named the parts they claimed to be the first to see and map out, but then, as now, the answer of white frozen Antarctica was and is something like this:

You may tell over bits of me, dragging your weary dog trains, you may fly over bits of me in your new winged cars, looking down on my white wastes and frozen mountains, you may name sections of me after your kings or wives; but that is the limit of your endeavor. No settlers shall make a home on me, no seed shall be sown on me, no children shall be born on me, no commerce shall strive for life on me. Forever you are stopped by the lasting grip of my cold, my ice; my eternal snows—in my white loneliness and desolation I laugh you puny efforts to scorn.

It is an unanswerable answer. The claims of nations in far Antarctica are purely theoretical. Boundary disputes, if ever there should be any, will be but words, inconceivably productive of vigorous deeds; for, as ardently smiling white Antarctica well knows, they will not be worth while.

TO RE-EXAMINE DRIVERS.

Safety on the road would seem to demand, after a period of time, the re-examination and re-registration of all operators of motor vehicles, for some of the qualifications assured by the first examination will not necessarily be permanent. In regard to his bill introduced in the Maryland Legislature requiring such re-examination, State Senator Meyers says:

Hundreds of persons who were examined as long as twenty years ago for license have developed disabilities which should preclude them from driving automobiles. I personally know of three persons who, after receiving operators' cards, lost the use of one of their arms. However, they still drive their automobiles. Such cases are comparatively rare, but there are hundreds of drivers with impaired eyesight, and with impaired hearing. The danger might well have added. The danger of reduced efficiency at the wheel after a number of years is obvious. Opponents of the Meyers bill are said to characterize it as a scheme to add to the revenue of the Motor Vehicle Commission, but Mr. Meyers rightly describes it as a safety measure. He is in error only in accepting chauffeurs, who are as liable to creeping infirmities tending to impair efficiency as anybody else after the lapse of time. It appears that only in the District of Columbia is the re-examination of motor car drivers now required, but a general adoption of that policy would appear to be demanded in the interest of safety on the highways.

Our dissatisfied "Intelligentsia" who complain of Puritanism in America should be interested to note that, not in any of our cities or even small towns, but in Budapest, the capital of Hungary, is it decreed that "men and women may not walk down the streets arm in arm, husbands and wives must not embrace on railway platforms, and young girls must be chaperoned at public halls and may dance only with male partners known to the family."

Mr. Edison says goldenrod ranks high among the 1,200 plants which he has found to contain rubber. It is also very plentiful, being found in every state of the Union—for which reason there has long been a movement to make it our still unchosen "national flower."

THAT BODY OF YOURS

By JAMES W. BARTON, M. D.

(Registered in accordance with the Copyright Act.)

FIT OR JUST SOUND?

The candidate had just been examined for life insurance. The policy was for a large sum and the examination was quite searching.

At the close of the examination he quite frankly asked the doctor if he had passed him as "fit".

The doctor replied that he was recommending him for the policy and he would obtain it all right, because he was "sound", but he really wasn't "fit".

Why? Well you have a number of things that do not prevent you from being sound, but do prevent you from being fit.

In the first place your lungs are not large enough for your body.

You have been so busy all your life that you haven't played much.

The candidate admitted this to be the case.

Then your right calf is about 1 1/2 inches larger than your left, due to some varicose veins. If you get a blow on that calf you may develop a varicose ulcer. You are wearing a tight garter that should be removed at once.

Your liver and intestine are sluggish and this no doubt gives you headaches at times. The candidate admitted the headaches.

You are nearly 30 pounds overweight.

He was advised to walk to and from his office daily, put right leg upon chair when he sat down at his desk, was given four minutes abdominal exercises to be done night and morning, and was advised to cut down his liquids and starches.

He returned two months later and the examination showed a lung capacity of 25 cubic inches larger, two inches of abdomen, the right calf a half inch smaller, and there was a loss of 12 pounds in weight.

His remark was "I know now the difference between being sound and being fit".

The thought then is to see your family physician and make sure you are sound.

That in itself is worth much to your peace of mind.

Then get busy to do with that body of yours what you know it needs.

Only the three points to watch, food, rest, and exercise.

As Dr. J. W. Preston of Roanoke says "The time is rapidly approaching when the difference between 'fair' health and 'buoyant' health will be more appreciated."

"My Thirty Years at Sea"

By CAPTAIN GEORGE FRIED

Fried's struggle to get to sea and the ups and downs of his life as a seaman brought a measure of reward in his first foreign shore leave. There is education in travel, romance and love in every port, he found, and here he gives a few reminiscences.

CHAPTER V

Sailors, I believe, are afforded wonderful opportunities to develop themselves mentally. Travel is educational. Aside from the routine duties aboard ship, sailors are permitted to go ashore in foreign ports. Shore leave is granted usually by the heads of the various departments, such as deck, engine and stewards' departments.

It is natural that every man wants to leave the ship as quickly as possible, but it is also obvious that a skeleton crew must be aboard at all times, so the various departments function smoothly. Aboard a naval vessel or a tramp steamer efforts are made by the officers to divide the shore leave between men so that one group goes out first in one port and the next in the other, and so on.

In the American service, for instance aboard the America, the crew is also divided into groups, but in this case they are granted shore leave only in the two terminal ports, Bremerhaven and New York. When the America calls at Cherbourg, rested than another, but I do remember a time that my ship touched one of the Azore Islands. The vessel was anchored and we went ashore in a small boat. The boat was terrible. There was little to be seen except natives, thatched huts and tropical plants.

This was nothing new to me, but most of the fellows in our boat started on a promenade, going to this point and that, but not having been in the Navy very long myself, I decided, after a hasty survey, that under no conditions would I be left behind. I returned to the beach where our boat lay and sat down under a palm and waited patiently for the other fellows to return. They laughed at me, of course, but I had the satisfaction of being on hand when the boat was ready to pull off. Sightseeing trips in various lands have been very valuable. I have had opportunities to study art, architecture and the customs of various people. Every sailor likes to read history, the chief reason probably being that he gets first hand knowledge. He sees monuments, places of historic interest, gets facts from natives that would leave more of an impression upon him than the written word.

The historic data gleaned from books, however, fill the gaps that very often are not supplied by guides and natives.

A sailor has every reason to enjoy life. The routine is varied by new places, new faces, and I remember when going ashore with groups of men we headed first for the best restaurant in town and ordered the

Again in the case of the America and other trans-Atlantic liners, the members of the crew have large numbers of relatives and friends in those ports, and spend practically no time in sightseeing, unless it is their first trip. In the Navy, however, it is different. Most of the members of the crew divide themselves into parties and the first two or three days are devoted to sightseeing. After that, if the ship remains longer, the men seek whatever diversion they can find.

The American sailor is not as bad as he is painted. Sightseeing trips develop his mentality and often have seen sailors go to the ship's library to get volumes pertaining to the particular city or country the ship is headed for, so that they can acquaint themselves with the customs and ideas of the people they will visit.

It is true that they spend money. They often spend all that they have in a port. In recent years, however, through the cooperation of banks and savings institutions, these men lay aside part of their earnings for a squall.

Sightseeing trips develop his mentality and often have seen sailors go to the ship's library to get volumes pertaining to the particular city or country the ship is headed for, so that they can acquaint themselves with the customs and ideas of the people they will visit.

It is true that they spend money. They often spend all that they have in a port. In recent years, however, through the cooperation of banks and savings institutions, these men lay aside part of their earnings for a squall.

I have been in many ports in foreign lands and I have always found enough entertainment and sightseeing trips to interest me. I cannot point to any port that left me more pleased than another, but I do remember a time that my ship touched one of the Azore Islands. The vessel was anchored and we went ashore in a small boat. The boat was terrible. There was little to be seen except natives, thatched huts and tropical plants.

This was nothing new to me, but most of the fellows in our boat started on a promenade, going to this point and that, but not having been in the Navy very long myself, I decided, after a hasty survey, that under no conditions would I be left behind. I returned to the beach where our boat lay and sat down under a palm and waited patiently for the other fellows to return. They laughed at me, of course, but I had the satisfaction of being on hand when the boat was ready to pull off. Sightseeing trips in various lands have been very valuable. I have had opportunities to study art, architecture and the customs of various people. Every sailor likes to read history, the chief reason probably being that he gets first hand knowledge. He sees monuments, places of historic interest, gets facts from natives that would leave more of an impression upon him than the written word.

The historic data gleaned from books, however, fill the gaps that very often are not supplied by guides and natives.

A sailor has every reason to enjoy life. The routine is varied by new places, new faces, and I remember when going ashore with groups of men we headed first for the best restaurant in town and ordered the Southampton, Plymouth or Queens-town, it is impossible to allow anyone to leave the liner, as the passengers' baggage and freight are taken on as quickly as possible and the vessel resumes her voyage.

Again in the case of the America and other trans-Atlantic liners, the members of the crew have large numbers of relatives and friends in those ports, and spend practically no time in sightseeing, unless it is their first trip. In the Navy, however, it is different. Most of the members of the crew divide themselves into parties and the first two or three days are devoted to sightseeing. After that, if the ship remains longer, the men seek whatever diversion they can find.

The American sailor is not as bad as he is painted. Sightseeing trips develop his mentality and often have seen sailors go to the ship's library to get volumes pertaining to the particular city or country the ship is headed for, so that they can acquaint themselves with the customs and ideas of the people they will visit.

Chest Clinics In Ulster County

Realizing the importance of the early diagnosis of tuberculosis, the local health officers have requested the county tuberculosis nurse to complete arrangements for consultation clinics in the following places: Saugerties—Presbyterian Hall, Partridge street, Monday, March 11; Marlborough—Odd Fellows' Hall, Main street, Tuesday, March 12; Kingston—Knights of Columbus Hall, 359 Broadway, Wednesday and Thursday, March 13 and 14.

The State Department of Health will supply two examining physicians and X-ray equipment. These clinics are of inestimable value to the community and it is hoped that those who have symptoms referable to the chest will make application through their family physician for special examination.

City electricians of Jacksonville, Fla., assert that pellets from boys' air rifles have broken 300 street lights there.

Girl, 15, Writes Book on Boarding School

Chattanooga, Tenn.—Fifteen-year-old Carmen Karnaas of this city is to make her literary debut shortly with "School Girl," a fictional composite of life at a boarding school. The book is not a study of conditions at one school. Carmen is a student at fashionable Ward-Belmont, Nashville.

"School Girl" does not mimic words and it may not please the elders. Carmen's answer is that all her life she wanted to write a book and she has chosen the subject she knows most about.

The young author is the daughter of Mrs. George Patten Jackson. She has decided what she is going to do with the money from the book—"Buy about the most expensive sport model motor on the market."

U. S. Hunts for a Place That Never Had Flu

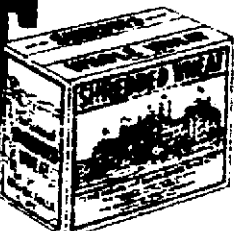

Washington.—Wanted: A locality that has not been touched by the influenza epidemic, where absolutely no cases of flu have occurred. If such a place can be found it could be used by the United States public health service for studies on the disease.

A serious difficulty encountered in previous influenza research has been the impossibility of securing absolute control conditions. Only where there are persons who have not had or been exposed to influenza is it possible to judge accurately the results of experiments on transmission of the disease, immunity, etc.

Meanwhile, preparations are under way at the hygienic laboratory here for other studies of the disease. Statistical studies will also begin soon. As soon as the epidemic is over, house-to-house canvasses will be made in various cities to determine the proportion of people affected.

Tell The World-- With Signs

A GREAT NEWSPAPER

SERVING A HOME-LOVING COMMUNITY

spreads its wares nightly on the doorsteps, halls and news-stands thruout the community it serves.

By virtue of this service, we are kept informed as to the news of the day and the trend of thought in all walks of life.

But this newspaper is not certain that everyone knows of this service, and so an electric sign burns its message nightly into the eyes of the passerby.

You, no doubt, have an equally important service to offer. The electric sign affords the most modern medium through which distinct and pertinent ideas can be brought to the attention of a community. Light in color, and light in action, offer a combination which impels interest and attention. If results from advertising could be measured, electric lights used in connection with signs would be most productive.

Our lighting specialists will be glad to assist you in developing an effective electric sign display.

WEST SHOKAN.

West Shokan, Feb. 28.—Early Tuesday morning a hail storm broke over this locality and as the weather moderated changed to a freezing rain, which continued all day, covering the landscape with a coating of ice. It made traveling either by foot or auto a rather difficult task. Quite a contrast was Wednesday with its mild temperatures and sunshine, which caused very sloppy conditions under foot, giving the impression that spring is not far in the offing. No doubt there will be some sudden cold snaps necessary for good weather.

The Stribling-Sharkey fight was hugely enjoyed by radio parties among the neighbors, any one having a radio being pretty apt to have company of an evening.

Edward J. Longyear of Altadena, Cal., has for several years spent much time in collecting data regarding the descendants of Jacob Longyear, the founder of the American family by that name who arrived in this country some time before October 22, 1752, when his daughter Barbara, was baptized at Kingston. One authority states that Jacob Longyear came from Dachau, a town in Bavaria, Germany. It is, however, claimed by several members of the family that he was of Dutch extraction. Nearly 3,000 descendants of Jacob Longyear and Maria Cox have been found and properly placed on the "family tree," a much larger family than first expected. In most cases the dates so necessary to make the records complete and valuable have been found. Hundreds of letters have been written asking for the necessary information and if they had all been answered there would remain little more to be done. However, Mr. Longyear is hoping that the information lacking to make the biography complete may be forthcoming, that it may be published by an early date.

E. C. Burgher is the possessor of a 1928 model Nash sedan, which is receiving favorable comment. Mr. Burgher made the trade with Samuel J. Van Kleeck, the Nash distributor of Kingston.

John and Jim Rutherford of Ashokan, on Thursday decided to take a sleigh ride to West Shokan visiting their sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bell. Getting an early start the pair started on their merry way with their trusty team hitched to the wood sled. Everything went fine during the trip over as there was considerable hail covering the road. However as the warmth of the sun's rays increased, the depth of sleighing decreased and by the time John and Jim arrived the sleighing was becoming pretty thin in spots. Nevertheless a pleasant day was spent and the return trip was made in the cool of the evening by keeping one runner on the snow covered sides of the roadway.

The many friends of Mrs. Orville Barber regret to learn that she was removed to a Kingston hospital on Tuesday and that her condition is said to be serious.

Mr. and Mrs. James Tweedy and daughter, Loranla, of Broadhead Heights, were out-of-town visitors on Wednesday.

The Ladies' Aid apron making party on Wednesday at the home of Miss Alice North of Bushkill, was reported a pronounced success.

John J. Dudley of Broadhead, the last surviving soldier of the Civil War, now living in the town of Olive, is keeping pretty close by the stove this winter. "Uncle John," as he is affectionately known, has a host of friends, and all hope to see him around "spry" as ever, when the weather gets warm. He has for many years been a faithful member of Shokan I. O. O. F. Lodge.

Jordan Brothers of Broadhead improved the sleighing on Thursday morning by hauling logs to the saw mill.

Mrs. Jane Ann Burgher is visiting at the home of her son, Alonzo, of Kingston, whose young son has been ill with pneumonia, but his condition all are happy to learn is somewhat improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Snyder and family also Mrs. Watson Bishop were Wednesday evening guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chase W. Davis of West Shokan Heights.

Julian Eckert is still hauling firewood for William Colanace.

The sturdy hicks at the Traver Hollow Inn, are maintaining a high record of egg production.

Mrs. Egbert Van Kleeck of Broadhead was a business caller here on Wednesday.

E. C. Burgher and son, Bobby, were recent visitors at Phoenixia.

Betty Snyder was out of school one day this week on account of sickness.

Charles Heesler drew wood for Michael Dwyer one afternoon recently.

"If You Don't Feel Well Try Nu-Erb" Advises This Man

"No Excuse For Feeling Half Sick All The Time Since This Medicine Is Available" He Says.

"Nu-Erb has surely done all that is claimed for it in my case and if there is anybody who suffers from troubles such as I did they should, in my opinion, give Nu-Erb a chance to help them," said Mr. Walter H. Van Leuven, Sleightsburg, N. Y. (Near Kingston).

"For a number of years, my stomach had been in a disordered condition and I have suffered much misery and distress because of gas, which formed in large quantities and crowded up against my heart, giving me much pain and distress through my chest. I'd get severe attacks of heartburn, frequent dizzy spells and headaches from which I could get no relief. My kidneys were in a weakened condition and my back ached so that at times I could hardly straighten up."

MR. W. H. VAN LEUVEN.

"My wife had been using Nu-Erb with such splendid results that I, too, decided to give it a trial. That is only a few weeks ago, but it has entirely overcome the indigestion and gas in my stomach. I can sit down now and eat a full meal of anything that is put before me and never have any trouble with my stomach afterward. It has also put an end to the dizzy spells and those dreaded headaches. It has strengthened my kidneys so that the pains have left my back and I have no trouble in that way. I can highly recommend this medicine to anybody."

If you suffer from indigestion, gas in stomach, acid risings, poor appetite, biliousness, dizzy spells, pains in the back, rheumatism, constipation or any one of the many symptoms of a disordered stomach, kidneys, liver or bowels then it is time that you heeded the advice of so many other local persons and started using Dr. French's Nu-Erb, the great herbal medicine that is being introduced in Kingston.

McBride Drug Store, 315 Wall St., is headquarters in Kingston for Nu-Erb. Go see the Nu-Erb man now making his headquarters there and let him explain to you the merits of this remarkable medicine.

Use FREEMAN advertising regularly and conservatively

Club Federation
Executives Meet

The February meeting of the executive committee of the Federation of Women's Clubs was held at the Kingston City Library on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Helen Walsh, president, in the chair. Following the routine business, Dr. Day gave her report on "Moving Pictures," calling attention to a work of praise for the picture, "Red Skin," given by Mrs. Reader, State Federation president, who recommended the same to club women. Reading briefly from the Moving Picture Bulletin, Dr. Day noted the uses of the film as more than mere entertainment; in education along various lines in schools, colleges and churches as well as by the government in connection with industrial activities, etc.

In giving the report of her public health committee, Dr. Day stated that additional amounts had been received from the last seal sale, bringing the gross amount up to $8,027, a larger sum than ever before and that with over 2,000 letters still unacknowledged. Dr. Day also told of attending a recent toxin anti-toxin (diphtheria) conference held in Newburgh, especially in connection with children of pre-school age, beginning at six months of age. The immunization is as absolute for one year as is the harmlessness of the toxin anti-toxin, and the State Health Department would interest all parents or any persons having the care of little children, in having them brought to the clinics as a matter of protection to the children and in order to materially aid in completely wiping out diphtheria in this country.

Mrs. Reed, chairman of the good government committee, told of the appointment of a woman on the board of trustees of the village of Saugerties.

The only reports of clubs were announcements of study subjects for next year as already mentioned in The Freeman.

Action was taken by the executive committee ratifying the informal vote in favor of contributing $50 to the Chinese famine relief fund, $10 of the amount to be taken from the public health fund, which made possible the forwarding of this sum within the time allotted for New York state outside the city of New York.

Announcement was made that the next open meeting would be held on the third Saturday in March, the Lowell Club entertaining and Sidney K. Clapp being the speaker.

Favor American Machetes

Machetes, heavy knives which originated in the tropics and were widely used in South America for virtually every conceivable cutting purpose, are most popular in Brazil when of American make. About 1,500 are bought monthly and hardware dealers stock
sharp, clean machetes imported from the United States.

Green for Every Horse

The royal stables of the shah of Persia are located in the province of Mazandaran, where a large establishment is maintained for the accommodation of the animals. Each horse has its individual attendant and the animal is as carefully coddled as any child. The cost of maintaining this establishment is enormous.

THE WHY of SUPERSTITIONS

By H. IRVING KING

CRYING BABES, BRIDES

PROBABLY the majority of people consider it a good sign if the baby cries at its christening. This is a superstition working by unconscious analogy. As the child
when it is first born announces its advent by a wail, so when it is reborn through the sacrament of baptism into the Christian family it ought to announce its rebirth in a like manner.

It is probable, also, that in connection with this superstition there is some lingering unconscious idea of the connection which existed in the belief of the primitive man between
the soul and the breath; an idea
which had its most perfect exemplification in the primal superstition
with regard to sneezing and might be supposed to attach in a lesser degree
to the use of the breath in crying.

The less widespread superstition,
that it is a prognostic of a happy
marriage if the bride weeps on her wedding day, is clearly atavistic and relates to the far time when marriage by capture was the proper thing. Young Stonehatchet's bride,
newly torn from her ancestral cave,
naturally wept if she had any feeling at all. If she was so callous and hardhearted as to remain dry-eyed
under such emotionally trying circumstances she was likely to be a lady who would lead her captor-husband a trying and tumultuous married life. Unnumbered generations have passed the idea on to us and though the whys and the wherefores
have been lost by the way we still
see the omen of a happy wedded life
in a weeping bride.

By Viola Brothers Shore

FOR THE GOOSE—

A WOMAN can love a man that she knows is a dumbbell. But not one that she thinks is a fool.

They say these interior decorators
that make our homes what they are today is all in the pay of the men's clubs.

Many a true tale is told in a gesture.

FOR THE GANDER—

A watch is just as little use when
it goes as when it don't if the hands
is broken off.

All marriages ain't the result of hard work on the part of the women.
Only about 80 per cent.

Some comes about like a sort of natural explosion and by the time the smoke clears, the man finds the invitations just arriving from the engraver.

Blamed Forgetfulness

If there is one thing more than any other that makes life worth living, it is the fact that it is utterly impossible for any human being to remember all the fool things he or she has done.—Springfield Union.

Mexicans Shot for Killing Americans

Mexico City, March 1 (AP)—Sixteen Mexicans have paid with their lives for the recent alleged murder
of W. M. Underwood and G. C.
Allesthorpe, American mining officials, in the state of Guanajuato.

Two others, held as prisoners, today faced summary action by court martial and probable execution for their part in the slayings. Troops were in pursuit of the remainder of the band.

The military commander of the state of Guanajuato reported to the chief of the presidential staff here
that federal troops yesterday encountered the bandit group which kidnapped and killed the two Americans and in a two-hour battle killed
ten of them and captured two. Six others were killed in a previous battle.

ST. JAMES MEN'S CLUB HAD ENJOYABLE SUPPER.

Wednesday evening the Men's Club of St. James M. E. Church held its annual pancake and sausage supper. The results vindicated the efforts of the committee in their preparations. The affair was well advertised in the papers and by personal means. Many showed up for the supper at the last minute who had not purchased their tickets in advance. In all about 250 were served and it took 1,500 large delicious pancakes to satisfy the "inner man." Some of the "customers"
were particularly hard to satisfy.

Fred Post of Paterson, N. J., was the pancake expert and a skilled one
he proved to be both in speed and quality. Teco flour was used. Mr.
Carroll of this city served Latournaise coffee. Robert J. Harder furnished a fine large radio to accompany the affair with dinner music.

The following committee was in charge: Messrs. Irwin, chairman, C.
Habeck, Mellett, Dr. Broberg, Katrody, Longyear, Willson, Suttin, Banes, DuFon. The committee were very ably assisted by their wives and a number of young ladies of the church. Among these were Mesdames Irwin, C. Habeck, Quimby, Longyear, Bouton, Colburn, Abbott, Mel-
lett, Snyder, Van Keuren, H.
Thomas, Davis, Black and others.
The young ladies from Mrs. Parker's and Miss Treadwell's classes also assisted.

Make Money From Frogs

Such big catches have been made by bullfrog hunters in the marshes
of Louisiana that there are more frogs now than there are people who enjoy the delicacy of their fried hindquarters. Louisiana supplies the rest of the world with some two million frogs a year.

3 Dry Agents Hurt In Florida Battle

Tampa, Fla., March 1 (AP).—Federal prohibition agents and rum runners fought a pitched battle three miles south of Wimauma last night with three automobiles loaded with liquor as the prize. When the last shot of the half-hour's battle had been fired, three officers were wounded, one rum runner was in custody, and one other believed to have been killed.

Acting on information that liquor, unloaded from boats in the Gulf of Mexico, was to be taken from its hiding place in the woods, the federal agents lay in wait and opened fire as the three-car caravan fled past.

The men in the automobiles returned the fire with shotguns, rifles and pistols. The firing ended when the men fled to the woods.

M. C. Hendrix, chief of the Tampa federal prohibition forces, received a shot gun charge in the body; Hanson Taylor was shot through the lung and was in a serious condition, and J. C. Stewart was shot in the left leg.

The officers believed they killed at least one of the rum runners.

ELEANOR GUNN ON FASHIONS

GALYAK AND BLUE FOX ARE FASHIONABLE SPRING
PELTS

New York—Just as one is converted to the idea that black is to be vanzhined, and color chosen for all hours of the day if not for the evening, it becomes apparent that smart women refuse to give it up. While navy has become a formidable rival
for spring coats and suits, black remains as elegant as usual and is often chosen for the coat of the unrelated ensemble. Frequently this coat ends
four inches above the dress hem,
which gives a new aspect to the ensemble.

Color themes are developed along interesting lines, especially for evening, many of them being Venetian
in their expression. For day wear,
some of the best looking coats sport
a capelet, and while one finds an occasional straight line, the flare has been established.

The international furor occasioned
by the success of varied jacket
shades should not have any influence on the standing of the coat. The return of the tailored suit likewise cannot undermine the coat as a smart
and practical garment, necessary now
perhaps more than ever because of the elaborate character of the gowns adorned for day wear. That there are times and places when such gowns
must be covered goes without saying
and justifies the existence of the spring coat.

Galyak remain a highly applauded
fur and is used for incidental trimmings. Fox, especially blue fox, is a smart pelt, and is introduced often as a border, the collar being without fur.

OUR DAILY PATTERN.

A Youthful and Pleasing Model.
6375. It is the neck of this design with its graceful tie yoke that makes it a winner. The waist blouses becomingly above the belt and the skirt
flares attractively over the center of the front. One could have this style in crepe or in silk tweed. If desired
the yoke and belt may be of contrasting material. Printed and plain linen would combine well for this.

The pattern is cut in four sizes: 8, 10, 12 and 14 years. To make the design for a 12-year size will require 2 1/2 yards of 35-inch material. To finish with bias binding put on as illustrated requires 3 1/2 yards.

A pattern of this illustration
mailed to any address on receipt of 12c in coin or stamps by the Pattern
Department, The Freeman, Kingston, N. Y. Be sure to state the size wanted.

Fashion Book Notice.
Send 15c in coin or stamps to The Freeman for our up-to-date Spring
and Summer 1923 Book of Fashions showing color plates, and containing 600 designs of ladies' misses' and children's patterns, a concise and comprehensive article on dressmaking, also some points for the needle (illustrating 30 of the various simple stitches), all valuable hints to the home dressmaker.

Side Lines for Style Noted in Spring Gown

Side lines, the neck facing that drops into a wedge-like tab, the front
that runs into the skirt panel, play
on the left-to-right caprice of the spring mode in the frock illustrated.
Set off with a smartly flaring skirt
it is a dress worthy of the newest sports canton crepe, perhaps a yellow flecked with black. In good style, too, for a simple crepe de chine and
not too much work for a cotton print.

Scarfs Promise to Have Call for Spring Wear

Some of the new accessories being shown now to brighten the winter costumes are virtually forecasts of those
for spring, and as it is widely predicted that suits, especially ensembles,
will be worn, scarfs of one kind or another are certain to have a vogue.

From Paris there comes one of a charming knitted or woven, fabric
that is very sheer, and quite long, although narrow. Various colors are used, but those with solid grounds
with some sort of unusual stripes or hairline designs are the most popular,
especially for wear with Palm Beach
costumes. The centers of these scarfs
are made with one-inch strips of Jersey, which hold together the two bias
sections of which the scarf is made.

Some of the outstanding colors are red, yellow, light blue, navy blue with white and red stripes, beige and brown mixtures, various orchid shades and striking black and white combinations.

For the very chic person there is the jaunty little gypsy scarf made of three strips of silk of different colors.
Each piece has both ends finished in petal shapes so that when the three are joined these little ends fall loosely and give an attractive effect when the scarf is tied with a tight knot at one side of the neck. Various colors are used, though in all of them the gypsy combination of red, green,
orange and yellow is introduced somehow.

Frocks for Juniors Are Made of Velvet Taffeta

A few mothers like to have their "junior" daughters wear velvet and taffeta for winter parties, and many charming models are shown in these materials, both figured and plain. A pale green velvet frock for a girl of twelve, made quite simply, has a collar of batiste and cream lace, with a sash and bow of dark green velvet ribbon.

Others are in the new colors and in black, some with large lace collars which keep the childlike style. Many pretty party frocks are shown in flowered taffeta, the tiered and ruffled skirt being much preferred this season to the "period" style of the last two years. Large sash bows give the bustle effect on two new models of flowered taffeta in pastel tints.

Wraps for little girls are as different and as simplified as most of the frocks. A successful model for daytime is made of beige kasha, absolutely plain, closed at the neck and finished at the wrists with bands of beaver.

Restoring Old Church

At Winterbourne Thompson, Dorset
England, is an ancient church, probably Norman, which is about to be restored. It measures 14 feet by 23 feet
and is unlighted on the north side
but has three windows on the south side.

DRUG, DEPARTMENT

Paris,
Chemise fronts on one or two piece dresses for sport and country wear are advocated by Jane Regny, sport specialist.
One dress of printed natural silk has dots in three colors sprinkled over it. The skimpy
plato, more like small stitched tucks, are un-
pressed, a Regny idea.

Fate About Columbus
Christopher Columbus did not die
in prison, as many seem to suppose.
He died in poverty. The story, often repeated, that he died in poverty is merely one of the many legends with which his life
is distorted. His will indicated that he possessed considerable wealth
at the time of his death at Valladolid
in 1506.

Keep your refrigerator clean

DO AWAY with that sharp rankness
of refrigerated foods. Clean your refrigerator with Melo. It cuts grease.
It dissolves dirt. It makes the inside
fresh and bright.

Melo is a useful household cleaner,
because it softens that hard city
water so difficult to wash with. It makes clothes whiter. The scummy ring on the dishpan disappears. Melo
in the bathtub gives delightfully soft water for bathing. It saves soap,
from 1/3 to 1/2 the amount generally used. Your grocer has it.

After all, most husbands are like children

MANY a man owes his daily
fitness, his success, to the wife
who sees that "he takes good care of himself." She watches
that he gets enough sleep,
takes enough time to eat. She acts as family physician with every meal she serves. And often as not, Kellogg's
ALL-BRAN is her trusted ally.

For this healthful cereal
has been adopted by countless women as the surest,
easiest way to insure plenty
of daily roughage, lacking in so many foods.

They know how important
roughage is. In safeguarding their families from constipation they are responsible for their own happier homes.

Constipation is the bane of thousands. It attacks health. Ruins youth. Saps energy.
Too often it brings serious disease. And yet it is easy to prevent. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed.

Why ALL-BRAN is so effective

Bulk or roughage relieves constipation
naturally. ALL-BRAN furnishes bulk in generous quantity because it is 100% bran. This bulk absorbs moisture and distributes it through the digestive system. Gently distending the intestines—exercising them—

sweeping out wastes and poisons. In a part-bran product the amount of bulk is seldom sufficient to completely perform this work. That is why doctors recommend ALL-BRAN. Because they know that it is 100% bran
and 100% effective.

Different from unnatural pills

ALL-BRAN works as nature
works. How much better than habit-forming drugs
whose dose must be constantly increased—and
which sometimes injure the system.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is an inviting cereal to eat with milk or cream. Delicious with fruits or honey added. Sprinkle it into soups
too. Use it in cooking—recipes on package.
Mix it with other cereals. Eat two tablespoonfuls daily—chronic cases, with every meal. If you will serve it in some form regularly, you will surely protect your family
from dread constipation.

ALL-BRAN is sold by all grocers. Served at hotels, cafeterias. On diners. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Guaranteed!
Kellogg's ALL-BRAN
is sold with this advice: guarantee! Eat it
according to directions.
If it does not relieve constipation safely, we will refund the purchase price.

NEW YORK STATE'S EXPORT SALES
TOTAL $770,000,000 IN YEAR

New York leads all other states in sales to foreign countries. It is shown by the newest data collected by the U. S. Commerce department. Merchandise officially appraised at $770,000,000 which was exported from the United States in 12 months originated and was produced in New York, according to the official reports. Texas ranks second with export sales totaling $100,000,000; Michigan third with $50,000,000; California fourth with exports of $40,000,000 and Pennsylvania fifth with foreign sales amounting to $30,000,000.

New York state produces approximately 15% of all American exports. It is shown. U. S. exports total about $4,750,000,000 a year. The state's export trade tends to stabilize employment by widening the market of its manufacturers.

Cotton cloth, valued at $49,000,000 was the largest single item in New York's foreign sales. Some other principal export commodities were reported as follows by the U. S. Commerce department: Copper and manufactures thereof, $42,000,000; electrical machinery, $36,000,000; automobiles and parts, $34,000,000; wheat flour, $28,000,000; lubricating oil, $28,000,000; gasoline, $24,000,000; undressed furs, $18,000,000; farm machinery, $14,000,000; fresh fruits $12,000,000, and silk manufactures, $11,000,000.

The SANDMAN STORY

ABOUT BABY HIPPO

"MY DARLING," said Mother Hippopotamus to her baby, "do you know how much I love you?"

Mother Hippopotamus was lying in her pool, her head partly under the water, but her nostrils were above so she could breathe the air, and her mouth was above so she could speak to her baby.

The baby was a very big baby, though Mother Hippopotamus thought it was a very cunning "little deer."

"They come to the sea," Mother Hippopotamus went on, "and they think I'm big and ugly and that my skin is coarse and that I haven't any thoughts in my big head."

"I don't believe they think I feel very much. I don't believe they know what a loving, loving heart Mother Hippopotamus has."

"Oh, but they know so little! It is true I yawn right before them and show my great cavern-like mouth and

"And Why Shouldn't We Love Our Babies?"

Jaw. But why shouldn't I yawn before them? I am not interested in them, and I do not find their society exciting. I can't talk their talk and they can't talk mine, and we don't understand each other by words or gestures.

"Of course it may not be very polite to yawn right in some one's face. I notice that people cover up their mouths with their hands when they yawn. But if I tried to cover up my mouth I'd get all tangled up in myself. I'm sure. It would be much too much of a job."

"But oh, my darling, how a mother hippo does love her baby. There is no mother who loves her child any more, I'm sure."

"And why shouldn't we love our babies? What could be more beautiful than a hippopotamus baby? I wouldn't ask this question of a person, for the answer would not be correct according to my way of thinking."

"My answer would be: 'There is nothing more beautiful than a hippo baby.'"

Mother Hippopotamus looked and saw that her child was just about asleep. "I will soothe him and see that he goes sound, sound asleep," she said.

So Mother Hippopotamus in her own hippopotamus fashion sang the Hippopotamus Lullaby:

Go to sleep, my dear little hippo. Go to sleep, my own little pot. And though other mothers boast of their babies, their babies are not. You're the loveliest baby of all, I bet!

"I don't suppose," Mother Hippo said to herself, "I should use slang like that before the dear—though I don't believe he heard it. But I pick up slang from humans and use it in my hippopotamus way."

"How different are the ways of humans from my ways. They do things in the daytime and seem to be rushing about them."

"But at night I become far more wide-awake and then it is I like to play and eat."

"When I lived in the African jungle I would sleep during the daytime and at night go marketing for my vegetables and such food."

"My thick skin used to be of great protection to me then as my legs are short and when I scraped my body against the ground it did not hurt because my skin was the right sort of a skin for the kind of traveling which I did."

"My skin, too, can send forth a kind of milky substance which floats about on my pool and my baby can drink of this, which a Hippo baby thinks is delicious."

"They have come and taken photographs of my baby. And I do not blame them. To me there is no more beautiful sight than a Hippo baby which I believe I have said before."

"Some one taking our picture said of the baby: 'He has a face only a mother could love.'"

"And I know what he meant! He meant that only a mother could fully appreciate his great beauty and charm and loveliness."

"I understand! 'Ah, my baby is waking up now. I must whisper sweet nothings, as they say, in his ear.'"

Joseph Mitchell
A State Candidate

At the next state convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, Joseph Mitchell, an enthusiastic member of Joyce-Schrick Post, No. 1386, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will be one of the candidates for the office of junior vice commander of the state organization.

This was made known at a meeting of Joyce-Schrick Post held at the "Dugout", 22-30 East Chestnut street, Thursday night, when comrades of Mitchell strongly approved of his being a candidate for the office. He has been an active and enthusiastic officer in Joyce-Schrick Post for some time and his knowledge of V. F. W. details is expected to be one of the main factors in winning for him the support of posts throughout the Hudson valley.

Mitchell's candidacy will be announced at the Hudson Valley County Council meeting to be held at Windham next Sunday.

Two other members of the Kingston organization have been honored with appointments to places in the state organization. Bernard V. Roach has been reappointed deputy chief of staff and Otto Thurn named deputy inspector.

SERVICE IN BUSINESS

SERVICE in business means more than merely satisfying a public need. In his interesting lecture, "Acrea of Diamonds," Dr. Russell Conwell relates an experience which occurred when he was a young man clerking in a store. A customer desired to purchase a jack knife, but there were no jack knives in the store for sale. Another customer who desired the same article left the store dissatisfied. By the time the third customer asked for the same article plenty of jack knives were on the counter for sale.

While the public creates the demand which business must satisfy, Service implies more than just satisfying this demand. Service in business should create a spirit of good will, of personal interest, mutual trust and comradeship. Service demands not only that the customer be furnished with a jack knife when he asks for it, but also, that when he desires another one he will return to the same counter for it. The most important thing is not that a transaction was made that may have brought a profit to the dealer, but that through that satisfaction which the customer had in the transaction other people will be influenced to trade at the same place.

Service in business has a sort of plus value. It is a sort of spirit which satisfies a public in such a way that it creates good will. The old policy of "an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth" can no longer be the creed of a successful business career. Self-preservation is not the first law of life in the realm of human values, and business is more concerned with human than material values.

The most serious loss to any business concern is not money but satisfied patronage. In the competition of the modern business world where one concern endeavors to secure advantage at the expense of its competitor, the element which ultimately wins is something more than the quality of the article produced; it is that, but also SERVICE on the higher levels, which creates confidence, mutual understanding, permanent satisfaction and good will.

Capital Ready For Inauguration

Building Draped With Bunting and Every Incoming Train Brings Visitors—Hoover to Leave Immediately After Hoover Takes Oath of Office.

Washington, March 1 (AP).—Bunting, red, white and blue drapes capital buildings. The city has become a city of proudly flying flags. On Pennsylvania avenue there is the impressive sight of crude wooden stands, built of unpainted lumber. Every incoming train brings its group of visitors. The inauguration of Herbert Hoover as the thirty-first president of the United States is only three days away.

Four years ago the city outwardly was much the same. Bunting draped brick and stone buildings, flags were flying and every train brought its group of visitors—but today Calvin Coolidge, president of the United States, is preparing to go back to the quiet town of Northampton, Mass.

He will not even wait to ride up Pennsylvania avenue with his successor after the inauguration but will go to the train almost directly after Herbert Hoover takes the oath of office.

Herbert Hoover was secretary of commerce four years ago. He had been mentioned for the presidency, had even been put in nomination at a Republican convention. He got much applause from the galleries but few votes from the delegates.

Dances Also to Leave Monday. Charles G. Dawes, vice president of the United States, today was also preparing to leave Washington. He plans to leave for Evanston, Ill., Monday evening. He will not go unnoticed but four years ago he was drawing almost as much attention as the president. His fame as a banker, soldier and a user of the expression "Hell and Maria" in moments of stress had preceded him and due notice had been taken of one of his closest companions, an understanding pipe. Charles Curtis, vice president-elect, was a senator then and today he was still busy in the Senate but his time there is short.

Senator Curtis has a strain of Indian blood, and at the inauguration more than 189 Indians are to be present. They will wear feathers, paint and buckskin and during their stay here will pitch their tepees on the ground around the Washington monument. Almost all the tribes in the country will be represented.

Cabinet of Four Years Ago. President Coolidge had chosen the ten men who were to sit in his cabinet at this time four years ago. They were Frank B. Kellogg, Secretary of State; Andrew W. Mellon, Secretary of the Treasury; John W. Weeks, Secretary of War; Charles E. Warren, Attorney General; Harry S. New, Postmaster General; Curtis D. Wilbur, Secretary of Navy; Huber Work, Secretary of the Interior; William M. Jardine, secretary of Agriculture; Herbert C. Hoover, Secretary of Commerce and James J. Davis, Secretary of Labor.

From present indications, only two of these men will remain in the Hoover cabinet. Mellon and Davis Weeks is dead. Warren was not confirmed by the Senate. The Attorney General in the Coolidge cabinet, John G. Sargent, is looking forward to going back to his small town. He likes living in a small town.

Postmaster General New probably will remain in Washington, since he has a beautiful country place in nearby Maryland. Jardine has accepted a place with a Cooperative Association. Secretary Dwight Davis will probably go back to his home in St. Louis. Dr. Work resigned to become Republican National Committee man and his successor, Roy O. West, is expected to return to his home as is William F. Whiting who succeeded Hoover as Commerce Secretary.

Communion Center Masquerade. The first annual masquerade of the downtown Jewish Community Center will be held Tuesday evening, March 5, at the center. It will be sponsored by the Ladies' Auxiliary for a charitable benefit. The public is invited to attend. Dancing will be held from 8 to 12 o'clock.

sent to the board at that time. It will take effect March 15 because, according to Moore, the amount of unfinished business will not permit him to give up the office sooner. Although no definite date has been set for a meeting, the town board expects to meet very soon to appoint Moore's successor. Several names are being mentioned for the new justice of the peace, among them being Attorney Morris Kanfer, Attorney Manuel Dittenheimer and Jacob Beason; but who will succeed Moore is not known at present.

At a meeting of the board it was moved that in view of Mr. Moore's recent plea in county court that the town board ask the resignation of Justice Moore.

WAWARSING JUSTICE OF PEACE RESIGNS. Brice Moore, justice of the peace of the town of Wawarsing, handed his resignation to the town board Thursday. The resignation was dated February 22, but was not presented to the board at that time.

VINCENZO GEMITO, NOTED ITALIAN SCULPTOR, DIES. Naples, Italy, March 1 (AP).—Vincenzo Gemito, noted Italian sculptor, died today from pneumonia.

Gemito several days ago claimed to have had a conversation with St. Anthony of Padua in a dream in which he promised to make a statue of him if St. Anthony would cause his return to health.

The sculptor became much better and insisted the saint had granted his request.

A., will conduct a service in the Methodist Church at Ellenville on Sunday at 7:30 p. m. Music will be furnished by the Hi-Y orchestra of this city. Frank J. Campbell of Ellenville will preside at the organ.

Buyer Robinson Houdon. Arthur Opitz, who is employed at the Fort plant on Abbot street, has purchased the residence of the late Dr. J. S. Robinson at 44 Abbot street, and will make his future home there. The deal was closed through the real estate office of Alderman Sam X. Mann, on East Strand.

GIRL UNABLE TO IDENTIFY WILSON; HE IS RELEASED

Harry Wilson, the soldier stationed at Plattsburg, who was brought to the county jail Thursday by State Troopers on suspicion that he was connected with the assault on a young girl last August near Highland, will be released as the girl has been unable to identify him. The assault on the girl was committed on the state road near Highland at a time that a carnival was being held there.

Fault-Finding
There is a great difference between fault-finding and fault-correction. Scores of trivial faults can be passed over. To keep a continual watch for them is wrong, and may develop into a vice. Correct the serious ones and be content with that.

Financial and Commercial

New York, March 1 (AP).—Bull traders ran wild in today's stock market. Scores of issues were whisked upward 3 to 25 points, many of them to new high records, on such an outpouring of buying orders that the ticker fell more than half an hour behind the market. Nearly 3,000,000 shares changed hands in the first two hours, with indications that the day's sales would set a new high record for the year.

The bullish demonstration apparently was a continuation of the "Hoover pre-inaugural rally" which started in yesterday's late trading. Earlier credit conditions, the retention of the 3 percent red discount rate by the New York Federal Reserve Bank and the publication of another series of unusually favorable earnings reports all helped to generate bullish enthusiasm. Wall Street generally was believed to be discounting the increased prosperity expected under the new administration at Washington.

Adams Express was again the spectacular performer, adding 25 points to its 60½ point gain of yesterday by touching a new high at 585. Radio (old stock) soared 13 points. Midland Steel Products preferred 12, American Railway Express 11½, to a new high at 173½. Russia Insurance 11½, to a new high at 209. Case Threshing Machine 10, Wright Aeronautical 9, and a score of others, including General Electric, Union Carbide, Johns Manville, and Goodyear, 5 to 8 points.

Rails took a more prominent part in the upswing as a result of the unusually favorable January earnings statements now being published. Protecting Paint.
By adding a half pint of oil of cedar to each gallon of paint one may combat the very annoying curiosity of flies and gnats to land out for themselves if the wet paint is really dry. Some painters prefer to use oil of citronella in smaller quantities. The effect is the same, the insects will avoid the fresh paint because of the odor.

Science Measures Heat of Blushes

Scientific Machine Demonstrated at Banquet Where Demonstrations Took Place of Speeches

Blushes of Blondes Hotter Than Brunettes

New York, March 1 (AP).—An instrument so sensitive it can measure the blush of a Broadway chorus girl is one of the achievements of science.

In one of the series of demonstrations arranged by the American Institute, Miss Joanna Allen of a musical show sat before a device receiving a small automobile horn, and blushed. Dr. E. E. Free, chemical authority, who conducted the demonstration, recorded the blush at five one-hundredths of a degree.

The measurement is made by noting the amount of heat radiated from the cheeks when emotion sends the blood rushing into them.

Miss Allen's blush was classified as a "light" one, scarcely sufficient to deepen the color of the cheeks. Dr. Free said in a series of tests a wide range of temperature changes had been noted in blushes, some readings showing 100 times as much actual rise in temperature as others.

The blushes of blondes, he said, were hotter than those of brunettes.

At a dinner of the institute at the Hotel Astor last night, scientific demonstrations took the place of speeches.

The diners heard the crackle of a burning match, when its flare was changed to sound and "saw" music when sound waves were transformed into light waves.

John Bellamy Taylor, a consulting engineer of the General Electric Company, used the perfected phonograph tube, the electric phonograph and recent development in amplifiers and sound reproducers to demonstrate how sound can be seen and light heard.

Photo-radio transmission, artificial lighting of 500,000 volts, a new cutting machine, the hardest substance known except diamonds, and motion pictures of the motion of the planet Jupiter and its satellites were exhibited.

No Sunday Show in Ellenville.

The Ellenville Dramatic Club appeared before the trustees of the village of Ellenville and asked permission to stage a show on Sunday at Shadowland Theatre.

Market for Fruits And Vegetables

New York, March 1 (AP).—State Department of Agriculture and Markets.—Fresh receipts of Florida strawberries were limited today but fair supplies were carried over from previous arrivals.

Fancy berries found a ready sale at slightly higher prices in a stronger market. Wholesale business was transacted at 30-40 cents a quart on good to fancy and 16-25 cents on poor to ordinary.

Strawberry shipments from Florida last week totaled 216 cars, 12 times greater than one year ago.

Supplies of old crop cabbage were limited while new stock was moderate. The market on old stock was steady but dull on new. Upstate New York white Danish type cabbage in bulk peddled out at $50-$55 per ton on good quality offerings.

Florida Wakefield cabbage in one and one-half bushel hampers sold at $1.25-$1.75. Cabbage shipments for the entire country last week amounted to 782 cars of new crop and 108 of old.

Arrivals of Florida tomatoes were moderate. Offerings varied greatly in condition and quality and sales ranged accordingly. The demand was confined to fancy ripe tomatoes. Fancy pack of 144 tomatoes jobbed out at $1.50-$2.25 and the choice from $1-$2.25. Mexico tomatoes in 36-pound bags realized from $1.50-$2.25, depending upon the grade.

Cuban tomatoes changed hands at $2.25-$2.25 per carrier on the 2nd pack and $2.12-$2.12 on the choice. During the third week of February, 1928, Florida shipped only 45 cars of tomatoes, compared with 355 cars during February 17 to 23 this year. In addition, 250 carloads of imported stock arrived last week from Mexico, which was twice as plentiful as a year ago. Imports from Cuba show a 50 per cent gain.

Receipts of lettuce from California were moderate. The market was dull. Crates of three and one-half and five dozen heads of the iceberg type lettuce brought from $3-$4.25. Offerings of the Big Boston variety lettuce from Florida were light. The demand was light in a weaker market. Hampers of about 30 and 40 heads realized from $1-$2.75. Movement of lettuce from California reached a peak of 1,400 cars last week. Shipments to date have been 7,500 cars against 8,150 cars a year ago. The season's total is forecast at 11,000 cars. Florida originated only 45 carloads during the past week. California stock is almost without competition.

Heaven is a state of mind; in the other place, only more so.

"I Want a Whitney"

STATION B-B-Y

Baby says "I want a Whitney" because for 71 years—since 1858—Whitney has been the name for the best and most beautiful in baby carriages. Baby wants a carriage that is kind and tender to a small, soft, and helpless body. And Whitney's are famous for that. And baby wants a carriage that mother can manage easily—without the terrifying fear for baby and the "carriage drudgery" for mother that comes from the unwieldy and poorly balanced carriage. Baby wants a Whitney because of what it means to you both. There is no other half so fine.
